WHO SHOULD JOIN THE ESCALATOR COMMUNITY?

Towards an inclusive & active community of practice in digital humanities (DH) & computational social sciences (CSS) in South Africa

Researchers & Lecturers

Researchers and/or lecturers from all career stages across humanities, social sciences and related fields AS WELL AS computational research disciplines.

Students

All students including undergraduates and postgraduates from humanities, social sciences and related fields as well as computational disciplines.

Professional academic staff

Subject librarians, research librarians, archivists, IT staff, research and teaching & learning support staff, and others interested in DH and related fields.

NPOs, NGOs

Practitioners involved in galleries, libraries, archives, & museums and other organisations related to DH and CSS.

Industry

Publishers, software developers, machine learning, AI, and natural language processing experts and others interested in DH and related fields.

You

If you don't fit any of these descriptions, but you're interested to learn about digital humanities, computational social sciences and more, please join us!

ESCALATOR

SADiLaR
South African Centre for Digital Language Resources

Website: https://escalator.sadilar.org
Slack: https://bit.ly/DHCSSza-Slack
Twitter: https://twitter.com/DHCSSza